TAYLOR'S

CHEROKEE

REMEDY

OF SWEET GUM AND

MULLEIN.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small stream in the Southern States, contains a stimulating extracting principle that soothes the inflamed surface of the throat, relieves the irritation of the lungs, and promotes the expectoration of the phlegm. When combined with the herbaceous and tonic properties of the mullein, this remedy is a most valuable agent in the treatment of all affections of the throat and lungs, and is especially adapted to the cure of croup, whooping cough, and consumption. Ask your druggist for it. Price, 50 cents per bottle.

Nashville's new daily, The Democrat, published its first issue Wednesday.The first week in May is the time fixed for a meeting of the teachers of the South to be held in Nashville.The Nashville Journal of education in commenting on the wisdom of Solomon says: "A fellow with seven hundred wives has a chance to get instructions."The $200,000 asked for by the Midland of the people of Nashville has been subscribed. This insures the completion of the road from Memphis to Nashville during this year.Congressman Thomas, of Illinois, has introduced a bill to prohibit the use of ladies' photographs for advertising purposes, except by consent of the parties. The vulgar and unauthorized use of ladies' pictures should be prohibited.The older we get the more we learn is a correct saying. In the city of Baltimore, one day last week, a man deliberately stole a saw-mill, hired it hauled to a junk shop, sold it for $700 and quietly left the city. We had never heard of the like before.Congressman Simmons, of North Carolina, has introduced a bill to deposit $65,000,000 with the States and Territories, the interest of which is to be used as an educational fund. We will be glad to accept that or any other aid that Congress may see proper to give for educational purposes.Cincinnati is making preparations to give a grand Centennial Exposition, beginning July 4, and continuing to October 17. This will be a grand affair and should be attended by everybody who can possibly spare the time and money necessary to go. We have no doubt cheap rates can be secured.We learn that River Engineer Waterman will, at an early day, make a survey of Colbert Shoal.
The Department proposes to build two locks and dams at that place, making the river navigable all the year, if the appropriation bill, which has been approved by the House, succeeds in passing the Senate.The bill introduced in Congress by Delegates Vorhees, of Washington Territory, to provide for the adoption of phonographic spelling to be taught in the public schools in the Territories is rather premature. Society alone should regulate such things. Phonographic spelling will be adopted in the near future, by the learned, without the aid of legislation.William, Emperor of Germany, died in Berlin at 8:30 last Friday morning. He died at the age of 91, after occupying the throne 16 years. His Successor is his son Emperor Frederick. The death of Emperor William has been looked for at any time for the past year and has been predicted as the signal for the commencement of a war in Europe, but peace still reigns.Congressman Euloe is making an enviable reputation in other parts of the State besides his own district. Read the resolutions adopted by the Humphreys County Wheel:Whereas, Congressman Euloe, of the 8th district, is taking much interest in the welfare of the people, proving himself a friend by his active work in Congress in their behalf.Resolved, That we tender him sincere thanks for the good work he is doing.

H. H. HOPKINS, Sec'y.

The man who can retain his equilibrium in the scale of righteousness and have to do with our present mail service, should certainly receive a crown of something more attractive than thorns.
Although we are within twenty miles of the railroad it requires just twenty-seven and a half hours to get a letter, for St. Louis, from Savannah to aboard the train at Bethel, when it could be done with all ease in seven hours. All this is because a concert of action cannot be secured among the proper parties.

River News.

The City of Florence passed up to Hamburg Wednesday night of last week. She was somewhat disfigured on her guards by a collision with the Arkansas City while in port at St. Louis. The collision was caused by a heavy wind that rendered the Florence unmanagable. She took 80,000 feet of lumber from this landing and Cerro Gordo for Powers & Haynes.
Friday night at Beech creek a gale struck her as she was making the short turn between the bars, that put her hard aground on one of the bars. When the Cherry passed her Saturday the river had fallen until she was entirely out of water, but lay flat upon the bar and would sustain no injury. She was relieved of her freight Sunday night by the Cherry and immediately floated off the bar, as there had been a slight rise.
There will be lively competition for Tennessee River freight during the coming season by the three lines already in the field. It is not anticipated that disastrous rate-cutting will be resorted to, but prompt and efficient service will be rendered to shippers.— Globe-Democrat.The City of Nashville, now in the Evansville trade in place of Nisbet, passed up Friday night and down Sunday morning. She had a good trip of both passengers and freight.The W. H. Cherry passed up Sunday morning going only as far as Crump's.The Clyde was on time Monday.
She brought St. Louis freight forwarded on the Nisbet to Paducah under the new arrangement.The C. Smith, nee the W. A.
Johnson, overhauled, passed up Monday evening. She will run between Waterloo and Florence.The Judith was expected last night.Capt. Jack Sleeth, who has been quite sick at his home in Paducah, is reported nearly well again. The Clyde always carries a deserted look when Capt. Jack is not aboard.T. I. N. C. is not a cure-all, but a quarrel of a century's complaint has been demanded. It is a cure for all kinds of neuralgia, and is the only cure for all kinds of neuralgia and for nervous headache. 50 cents per box. Manu-

Literary Notes.

"Opera in New York," by Henry T. Finck, the author of the popular work on "Romantic Love and Personal Beauty" and the accomplished musical critic of the New York Evening Post, is the leading article in The Cosmopolitan, the new magazine published for the beautiful full-page illustrations in color, the pen portraits by such of the leading singers at the Metropolitan Opera House, and the pen drawings and wood engravings are of well-known artists. In a profusely illustrated article on "The House of a Merchant Prince," the curious fact that this brutal form of sport is fairly raving over sister republic. It depicts from the precedent of making each month complete, in commencing a new serial story by E. P. Roe, entitled "Miss Lou," Dr.
Griffith Granger, by Julian Hawthorne, and "Burning Fire Cannot be Extinguished," by Count Tolstoy, are the short stories. It will signalize the commencement of a new volume and the inauguration of its new management under The Cosmopolitan Magazine Co. (of which, by the way, U. S. Grant, Jr., is the vice-president) by a new cover. The designer is W. H. Day, who is well known for his original genius as the stage artist at the Lyceum Theatre, and a prominent architectural decorator.When you feel depressed don't close your self with mean bitterness. Hodges' SARSAPARILLA

Woman's Work.

This valuable illustrated magazine should be in every family circle as its contents are of the most instructive and elevating character.
Its departments of Literature, Art, Poetry, Housekeeping, Money's Corner, the Home Physician, Correspondence, Recipes, Flower and Vegetable Gardening, Fancy Work, Boys and Girls, Bright Babies, Poultry and etc., are admirably conducted by the very highest authorities, and its miscellaneous features embrace matters of interest to every person. Nothing of a harmful tendency is admitted to its columns.Among the special attractions in the new future will be a series of articles on woman's work—the avenues open to her for earning a living, enjoying health, and making money —by one of the most practical and entertaining writers of the day. We would like for every family in the land to secure the benefits in store for its readers, and will be glad to offer it mailed one year to any address on receipt of the small subscription price of 50 cents, though it is in every way equal to high-priced publications. We will send our paper and "Woman's Work" one year for $1.50. If you are already a subscriber, we will extend your time and have "Woman's Work" mailed you under this offer. Address this office.

W. H. White vs. M. F. White

In this cause, upon motion of complainant's counsel, and it appearing to me, from the bill, which is sworn to, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on her. It is therefore, ordered by me that said defendant, M. F. White, appear at the next term of the Chancery court for Hardin county, Tenn., to be held at the court house in the town of Savannah, beginning on the 4th Monday in May next, being the 28th day of said month, and plead answer or demur to complainant's bill, or the same will be taken for confessed against her and this cause set for hearing ex parte. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published for a consecutive week in the SAVANNAH COURIER, a newspaper published in Savannah, Tenn., Feb. 28, 1888. J. D. McDUGGAL, C. & M.

Insolvent Notice.

J. L. Banks, administrator of the estate of William H. Banks, deceased, do hereby suggest the insolvency of said estate. All persons holding claims against said estate are hereby notified to file the same, properly authenticated, with the Clerk of the County Court in Hardin County, Tenn., on or before the first Monday in August, 1888, or they will be forever barred both in law and equity. This March 6, 1888. J. J. BANKS, Admr.

THE NASHVILLE DEMOCRAT.

Such will be the name of a Democratic Morning paper to be published in Nashville, Tenn., the publication of which will begin at the first of March.
This enterprise is undertaken in obedience to what will be to be an imperative demand on the part of the public, and especially a demand on the part of the Democrats of the State, for a clear-sighted and independent organ of Democracy in the Capital city. To properly meet this demand, the publishers of The Nashville Democrat conceive that something more is required of a newspaper than to be merely the champion of a party name, while ignoring or combating the party's most vital principles. In the new paper, therefore, the championship of a political party must be a fair defender and an honest advocate of the ideas upon which it is founded. Such a paper the publishers of The Nashville Democrat will make it.Accepting the views of President Cleveland, and adhering to the views of the present Congress as the expression of sound Democratic ideas, and the true principles of a much-needed reform, it will be ready to support the President as the best and bravest leader of the National Democracy.The Nashville Democrat will be free from all influences of rings, corporate monopolies, or other self-interests seeking profit at the general expense.
It will owe no obligations and expect no favors, except from the people, upon whose support alone it bases its confidence and hope of a long and prosperous career. It will be a paper of facts and figures, with all the requirements of modern newspaper-manship, live correspondents, from points of interest, in general, all that is necessary to make a thoroughly live, reliable and useful newspaper.
Last, but not least, it will have such safe and substantial financial backing as to insure it a permanent place among the newspapers of the State.The Nashville Democrat will begin its career as a four-column paper, with double size on Sunday and for the weekly, its aim being to give all the important news, without prolixity, and to avoid the publication of useless and unrelatable matter merely to fill space. It will be the aim of the publishers to gradually increase the size of the paper, enlarge its facilities, and in every way enhance its value to the readers without increasing the price.
This is based upon faith in such an appreciative support by the public as will justify it.The Weekly as the Sunday issue, will be made a special feature, each being double the usual size, with special articles and choice selections, the former containing the cream of the week's news.
The Nashville Democrat will be furnished at the low price of $2.50 per annum; $1.25 for 6 months; 50 cents per quarter; or 30 cents per month. The Weekly $3.00 per year.Exceedingly Liberal Commissions will be given to Agents and Solicitors, who are requested to correspond with The Nashville Democrat, without delay.The books are now open for subscriptions and advertising orders. The names for the latter will be furnished on application at the office in the Senate Building. Address
